THE LADIES HAVE GONE

They Were Well Entertained and Had a Good Time.

THE CAMPFIRE WAS ENJOYED

A Large Audience Heard One of the Best Programs of the Season—Good Addresses and Excellent Music—Refreshments Were Served.

The district convention of the Relief corps came to an end last night, and the ladies went home today praising their hospitable friends in East Liverpool, and declaring they had never been so well entertained while looking after the business of the order.

Mrs. Frederick had been called from the meeting, and her report as national delegate was read by Mrs. Korr. The exemplification of the ritual by the East Liverpool corps brought out many expressions of approval. Mrs. Cressinger called particular attention to the balloting, and Mrs. Wilson spoke of the difference between the old and the new rituals. The mode of presenting bills was discussed by Mrs. Izant, and the presentation of credentials was brought out. Mrs. Johnson ably answered the many questions taken from the query box, and Mrs. Izant, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported:

WHEREAS, There are many ladies in this, the Fourteenth district, Woman's Relief corps, who are unable to pay their own expenses as national delegates, therefore be it

Resolved, That the district pay the traveling expenses, the delegate to pay her board.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be extended to the department president, Mrs. Cressinger, for her helpful words and inspiring presence, and to our senior vice president, Mrs. Johnston; and to our assistant installing officer, Mrs. Wilson, for the efficient and thorough manner in which she has presided over the convention. We feel that it has been helpful to all.

Resolved, That we thank the many people and citizens who assisted in the camp fire program.

Resolved, That the sympathy of this convention be extended to Mrs. Elizabeth Vodrey, a charter member of General Lyon corps, in the loss of her husband, who was laid to rest on Monday last.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be extended to General Lyon corps for the pleasant and profitable entertainment afforded the delegates, and for the excellent dinner served.

The report was signed by Mrs. Izant, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Catlett, and was accepted by the unanimous vote of the convention. The invitation of the Courtland corps to hold the next convention at that place was accepted, and Mrs. Wilson was heartily endorsed for the position of national delegate. Her name will be presented and supported at the Chillicothe convention.

The convention then heard a number of excellent addresses, Mrs. Cressinger, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Johnston touching upon matters of interest to every member. Mrs. Izant, by request, sang "My Old Kentucky Home," much to the delight of the ladies, and the convention adjourned until next year, when the meeting will be held at Courtland.

The ladies were entertained at supper in the kitchen of the First Presbyterian church, and then assembled for the camp fire, the closing part of the program. It was a splendid audience that assembled in the Odd Fellows' building, and they were well repaid for going there. Mrs. McKinnon filled the president's chair, and Mrs. Jessop was chairman of the meeting and announced "America" as the opening number. It was sung by every one present who could sing, and Reverend Hastings offered prayer. The McClane trio sang very well "Guard the Flag," and Mrs. Cressinger was announced as the first speaker. She knows all that can be known about Ohio in the war, and the tribute she paid the boys in blue was at once eloquent and beautiful. She showed the wondrous deeds of valor they had done.

"We are looking to the children of the veterans, and we make them happy at Christmas time. Every member of 320 corps in Ohio gives a penny, and with this we educate three girls annually. One of our girls is in Marietta college, and will next year graduate at the head of her class. We aim to help the veteran and his wife, to keep them together. We aim to make the children respect and venerate the veterans and the flag, and thus put an effective block in the way of anarchy. [Great applause.]

A piano duet by Miss Kittie Rinehart and Miss Hattie Ashbaugh greatly pleased the audience, and a recitation by Willie Rhodes not only made that little gentleman many friends, but was loudly applauded. The Mandolin club gave a pretty selection, and were compelled to play again. Miss Alice Goodwin followed with "When the Heart Is Young." The round, full voice of the singer made the beautiful selection even more beautiful, and the listeners were entranced, as they heard such music as has seldom before been heard in the city. It was among Miss Goodwin's best efforts, and the storm of applause which marked its close testified to the sentiment of the audience. In answer to the demand, Miss Goodwin sang, "My Mammy's Lullaby," pathetic and pretty, and never more so than when given by an accomplished singer. Miss Ida Huston was the accompanist.

Delsarte movements by Miss Josie McClane, to "Annie Laurie," by Miss Mary Grace Reed, made a pleasing part of the program, and the audience settled down to hear an excellent address, brimful of facts and humor, by Reverend Hastings. The old chaplain who served so long and so faithfully, talked from the standpoint of one with knowledge and understanding. He paid the ladies many compliments, and in reviewing their noble work could see no reason why their graves should not be decorated on Memorial day with the graves of the veterans. The soldier, he said, was not always good, and recalled a hearty supper secured by half a dozen Liverpool boys near Wooster when they were raw recruits bound for Camp Chase. To his mind cedar and pine fence rails made the best coffee, and soldiers never could resist the ladies. He remembered when 1,000 men ran from one woman and a broom, and amused his audience by humorous incidents found in the life of the soldier.

"Little Doris" was a splendid solo by Professor Harper. Miss Chapman was the accompanist. An address by Mrs. Johnson followed. The lady realized she was among friends, and then spoke upon the great organization of which they were a part. She reviewed the work of the women in the army, and gave the details of the movement to secure pensions for nurses. Mrs. Johnson told of the welcome they had received at St. Paul, and gave the principal events of that great encampment.

Miss Allie Laughlin and Miss Georgie McLane sang the "Woodbine Song" so well as to bring hearty approval, and Miss Mary Grace Reed's solo was given in a rare manner, and she was the recipient of generous applause. Professor Watters was the accompanist.

This ended the program, and the campfire was over. It was a notable occasion, and the lunch which followed was enjoyed as much as the program and the Grand Army boys gave them a vote of thanks.

NOTABLE VISITORS.

Prominent Ladies of the Women's Relief Corps.

Among the notable women at the convention of the Relief corps, held in this city, was Mrs. Hattie R. Wilson, of Warren, Ohio, assistant installing and inspecting officer, department of Ohio; Mrs. Judge J. B. Johnston, of Youngstown, senior vice president of the department of Ohio; Mrs. Mary J. Lett, president of Tod corps No. 3, Youngstown; Mrs. M. I. F. Cressinger, Ashland, Ohio, department president of the Buckeye state; Mrs. S. Sprague and Mrs. Homer Baldwin, Youngstown; Mrs. Izant, Warren, Ohio; Mrs. Chapman, Burghill, Ohio; and Mrs. Chapman, of Canton, the latter a very warm advocate and admirer of Mr. William McKinley, a gentleman widely known at present in the United States, and justly popular. Mrs. Johnston is the wife of Judge Johnston, well known throughout this section, a gallant soldier and deservedly popular. Mrs. Cressinger is a practical worker, and her short and pithy address at the camp fire last night demonstrates the fact that she is a business woman, capable and efficient. Mrs. Johnston made a host of friends while here, and Mrs. Wilson won the hearts of the ladies of the local corps. It was a notable collection of visitors, and they reflect credit upon one of the grandest organizations in existence in the world—the Woman's Relief corps of the United States. God bless the noble women associated therewith.

A DEAD HORSE

Is Annoying People Who Live Near Its Grave.

Several weeks ago a horse died on Bank street, and was allowed to lay on the street for a week before being buried. Permission was then granted the health authorities to bury the animal in a vacant lot at the upper end of the street. The residents of the vicinity did not like the idea of having the horse buried in their midst, and are now complaining stronger than ever, and propose to see if there is not some law making it compulsory to remove the animal.

A LICENSE FOR CARS

Is a Provision of the New Railway Bill.

STRICTEST KIND OF A MEASURE

All Companies Must Obey Every Word of the Ordinance and Comply With Many Regulations—No Fast Running Allowed and Several Bonds Required.

Council did not meet last night, and the street railway ordinance was not discussed in regular session, but Mr. Purinton, Mr. Challis, Mr. Ashbaugh, Mr. Stewart, Solicitor Grosshans, Attorney McDonald and Contractor Shrader were there and talked about it.

The ordinance is a lengthy document, and covers every phase of the question. The first section says it is to cover all applications for street railways; the next says the application must include the name of the applicant, and a plan of the proposed line. A deposit of $25 is also required. The board of improvements, after examination, hand the application to council, and if the objections found are deemed insufficient it goes back to the board, and the clerk is ordered to advertise for proposals for carrying passengers. They are to specify the cash fare, and the number of tickets to be sold for a dollar, 50 cents and 25 cents. The proposals must be accompanied by a bond, and the bids are to be opened at the next regular meeting of the board. Within four months after the contract is let the lucky party must file with the board the written consent of a majority of the property holders represented by the foot front of lots abutting on the line. Then the board sends an ordinance to council. This bill contains all the particulars, and if it is passed, a written acceptance must be filed with the board of improvements. A bond must be given for the construction and equipment of the line within six months from the passage of the ordinance, for the faithful compliance with the terms of the ordinance, and to save the city harmless by reason of the operation of the road.

No track can be laid within twelve feet of the sidewalk, except by special permission. Tracks must be four feet, eight and one-half inches, and these must be a five inch girder rail. The lower tramway must be not less than three inches wide nor more than three-fourths of an inch below the upper. The tracks are to be laid so as to impede vehicle traffic in the slightest degree. Suitable bridges are provided for all gutters, and the track must be taken up and relaid at the expense of the company whenever the city deems it necessary by reason of improvements. The space between the rails and track are to be paved whenever council may deem it necessary, and it must be kept in repair. If a street is abandoned, all tracks must be removed, and the street must be placed in good repair. A wilful neglect to use the line for six months will be taken by council as meaning abandonment, but a road cannot be abandoned without the consent of council. If the requirements of the section are not carried out, council reserves the right to remove the road, and charge it to the company. Cars are to be run as the public convenience may require, and under direction of council. All rights vested in the city government are in no way to be impaired by any privileges that may be granted a company, but the rights granted any company are subject to the rights of the municipality. The company is made liable for any loss to any person through the construction and operation of the line, and the president and secretary shall, the first Tuesday of every June, file with council a list of the stockholders and officers.

Five miles an hour is the speed of cars in turning corners, and they shall not stop on cross walks, nor stand in the street, except to wait for passengers. Cars stop so the rear platform is over the cross walk, and ladies and children must not leave cars while in motion. Street names must be called out, and cars must give the fire department the right of way. No building material must be left within five feet of the tracks, and wagons must not obstruct the tracks.

Snow and ice must be cleaned from the tracks by the company, and not piled in the street. Processions and excavations are not allowed to obstruct the tracks between 5 in the morning and midnight. If a company refuses to obey the present or future orders of council, the franchise can by a two-thirds vote be killed.

For each car $10 a year is to be paid the city, and council must have a complete list of the cars before the first Monday of February. Failure to obey this provision means a fine of $50 in police court. No franchise is made for more than 25 years, and the small boy who surreptitiously rides on cars will get $5 and costs. The street fund gets all fines and license fees collected under the ordinance. Cars must be heated to the satisfaction of the board, under penalty of $25 and $1 a day for each car not heated as the section provides.

The gentlemen discussed the ordinance at length last night, and council will have it for consideration this evening.

LITTLE BOBBY SCOTT.

He Died This Morning After a Long Illness.

Robert A. Scott, aged 17, died this morning at 10:30 o'clock from kidney disease. Bobby, as he was better known, has been confined to his home for nine weeks, during which time he suffered greatly, but when the end came he was resting easy, and passed to the great world beyond without a murmur. He had a host of friends in the city, and was like a beam of sunshine at all times, and will be sadly missed by his playmates. Last Sunday he united with the Christian church, and died with a firm belief in the Master's love. The doubly bereaved mother, whose father died yesterday at Salineville, has the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Reverend Reed officiating.

ENTHUSIASTIC NEW YORK.

A Crockery Salesman Was Surprised at What He Saw.

David Bryan, traveling salesman for the Sebring Pottery company, arrived home last evening from a trip in the western part of New York. He says the enthusiasm for sound money in that part of the state is wonderful, almost every small town having an arch bearing the words McKinley and Hobart built over the street at the station, so it can be read from passing trains, while the farm houses are displaying flags and large pictures of the next president. Odds of two to one are being offered, but no takers can be found, while even money is being wagered that Pennsylvania gives 300,000 Republican plurality.

PATRONIZE HOME.

Those Who Do Not, Should Not Be Patronized.

There are a number of people in East Liverpool who depend absolutely upon the patronage and custom of residents of this city, and who yet make the boast that they purchase nothing at the hands of our home merchants and business men. It is a poor rule which will not work both ways in such cases, and such boosters should be let severely alone and not given even a shadow of custom at the hands of our residents, and they would then soon be brought to a realizing sense of their injustice and meanness. Patronize home and home industries, and thus aid materially in building up your city.

SOME PLAYING.

But the Time in This Game Was Occupied in Kicking.

The Eclipse second team and Olympic football clubs played a highly interesting game at West End park yesterday afternoon, the game resulting 8-0 in favor of the second team. The game abounded in brilliant plays, but the time was principally spent in kicking on the decisions of the referee.

Word was received this morning from the strong Beaver Falls team, saying they would be here to play the Eclipse eleven next Tuesday afternoon. The Eclipse have been greatly strengthened since their last game and think they will win.

NOW THEY CAN VOTE

Judge Young Made a Few Citizens Today.

THE MAJORITY WERE ENGLISH

But There Were Other Nationalities Among the Crowd Who Called at City Hall—Some Are For Bryan, One For Leavering, and Many For McKinley.

Seventy-six men presented themselves at city hall this morning, and when Judge Young had completed his labors 56 had obtained the papers that will allow them to vote next Tuesday.

The judge has been a busy man these past few weeks, but he could not have been more occupied than he was today. The crowd were anxious, and they pressed and pushed as though they feared the judge would get away before they could obtain the coveted papers. He allowed second papers to 56 applicants, distributed as follows: Irish 6, Swedish 2, Swiss 1, Austrian 4, German 10, Scotch 2, Italian 3, English 28. Of the 20 who asked for first papers, 10 were natives of Italy. A well known resident, who moved among the newly made supporters of the constitution, said a few would vote for Bryan, one for Leavering and the remainder for McKinley. He believes there are four McKinley men to one Bryan supporter among them.

BY LAW

Street Car Companies Can Be Made to Warm Their Cars.

Although cold weather has not yet set in, people who patronize the street car line are wondering if they will have to freeze as usual, this winter. A prominent attorney this morning said:

"If the franchise of the company does not call for the proper heating of the cars, council should pass an ordinance to that effect. If it does not come under their jurisdiction, it is certainly under the police laws of the state, compelling companies to protect the welfare and health of their patrons. I am of the opinion something should be done as soon as possible."

NEXT MONDAY.

The Funeral of the Late George C. Frederick Will Take Place.

The funeral of the late George C. Frederick will take place next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at his residence on Third street by Doctor Lee and Doctor Taggart, and interment will be in Riverview.

Mr. Frederick was a member of the Phoenix club, and when his death was announced the invitations for the Halloween party this evening were recalled, and the members notified that they would meet in the rooms of the organization on Monday afternoon to attend the funeral.

SEE THAT HUMPH?

Seventh Street Residents Think It Should Be Removed.

There is a place on Seventh street in front of the property of John Baum that needs grading, as it is several feet too high. Last evening Mr. Baum called at city hall and asked one of the councilmen if the place could not be graded to fill up the hole at Eighth street, as the teams would then only have to haul the dirt a short distance. The matter will be called to the attention of the street committee and commissioner, and it is probable the hump will be removed.

The News Review will give the latest and best news of the election next Tuesday night. An expert operator will take the full report as it comes into this office over a special wire, while the complete service of the long distance telephone will be bulletined as it arrives. These arrangements are perfect and cannot be improved upon. You know where to go for your election returns.

He Died This Morning After a Long Illness.

Robert A. Scott, aged 17, died this morning at 10:30 o'clock from kidney disease. Bobby, as he was better known, has been confined to his home for nine weeks, during which time he suffered greatly, but when the end came he was resting easy, and passed to the great world beyond without a murmur. He had a host of friends in the city, and was like a beam of sunshine at all times, and will be sadly missed by his playmates. Last Sunday he united with the Christian church, and died with a firm belief in the Master's love. The doubly bereaved mother, whose father died yesterday at Salineville, has the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Reverend Reed officiating.

ENTHUSIASTIC NEW YORK.

A Crockery Salesman Was Surprised at What He Saw.

PATRONIZE HOME.

Those Who Do Not, Should Not Be Patronized.

There are a number of people in East Liverpool who depend absolutely upon the patronage and custom of residents of this city, and who yet make the boast that they purchase nothing at the hands of our home merchants and business men. It is a poor rule which will not work both ways in such cases, and such boosters should be let severely alone and not given even a shadow of custom at the hands of our residents, and they would then soon be brought to a realizing sense of their injustice and meanness. Patronize home and home industries, and thus aid materially in building up your city.

SOME PLAYING.

But the Time in This Game Was Occupied in Kicking.

The Eclipse second team and Olympic football clubs played a highly interesting game at West End park yesterday afternoon, the game resulting 8-0 in favor of the second team. The game abounded in brilliant plays, but the time was principally spent in kicking on the decisions of the referee.

Word was received this morning from the strong Beaver Falls team, saying they would be here to play the Eclipse eleven next Tuesday afternoon. The Eclipse have been greatly strengthened since their last game and think they will win.

NOW THEY CAN VOTE

Judge Young Made a Few Citizens Today.

THE MAJORITY WERE ENGLISH

Seventy-six men presented themselves at city hall this morning, and when Judge Young had completed his labors 56 had obtained the papers that will allow them to vote next Tuesday.

The judge has been a busy man these past few weeks, but he could not have been more occupied than he was today. The crowd were anxious, and they pressed and pushed as though they feared the judge would get away before they could obtain the coveted papers. He allowed second papers to 56 applicants, distributed as follows: Irish 6, Swedish 2, Swiss 1, Austrian 4, German 10, Scotch 2, Italian 3, English 28. Of the 20 who asked for first papers, 10 were natives of Italy. A well known resident, who moved among the newly made supporters of the constitution, said a few would vote for Bryan, one for Leavering and the remainder for McKinley. He believes there are four McKinley men to one Bryan supporter among them.

BY LAW

Street Car Companies Can Be Made to Warm Their Cars.

Although cold weather has not yet set in, people who patronize the street car line are wondering if they will have to freeze as usual, this winter. A prominent attorney this morning said:

"If the franchise of the company does not call for the proper heating of the cars, council should pass an ordinance to that effect. If it does not come under their jurisdiction, it is certainly under the police laws of the state, compelling companies to protect the welfare and health of their patrons. I am of the opinion something should be done as soon as possible."

NEXT MONDAY.

The Funeral of the Late George C. Frederick Will Take Place.

The funeral of the late George C. Frederick will take place next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at his residence on Third street by Doctor Lee and Doctor Taggart, and interment will be in Riverview.

Mr. Frederick was a member of the Phoenix club, and when his death was announced the invitations for the Halloween party this evening were recalled, and the members notified that they would meet in the rooms of the organization on Monday afternoon to attend the funeral.

SEE THAT HUMPH?

Seventh Street Residents Think It Should Be Removed.

There is a place on Seventh street in front of the property of John Baum that needs grading, as it is several feet too high. Last evening Mr. Baum called at city hall and asked one of the councilmen if the place could not be graded to fill up the hole at Eighth street, as the teams would then only have to haul the dirt a short distance. The matter will be called to the attention of the street committee and commissioner, and it is probable the hump will be removed.

The News Review will give the latest and best news of the election next Tuesday night. An expert operator will take the full report as it comes into this office over a special wire, while the complete service of the long distance telephone will be bulletined as it arrives. These arrangements are perfect and cannot be improved upon. You know where to go for your election returns.

FOR MCKINLEY.

THE NEWS REVIEW was the first paper in the United States to place McKinley's name at the head of its columns, has kept it there ever since, and will continue to do so until the Great Republican leader is elected President.

UNLESS all signs fall the elephant will give the donkey's tail an unusually severe twist next Tuesday.

If the enthusiasm of the people means anything, Mr. Bryan will not carry Chicago and the state of Illinois.

MORE power to the men who place partisanship behind patriotism, and vote
this year for good money and good times.

DON'T give up the battle with the assurance that McKinley will be elected.
Do your best to make his majority a record breaker.

MR. HERR will speak to the greatest crowd of the campaign at the rink tomorrow evening. He is well worth hearing; his arguments carry conviction.

THE NEWS REVIEW will give all the election news next Tuesday evening.
Don't miss the bulletins as they are displayed in the windows of the office on Washington street.

SOME day, and it seems that day is not far distant, the people who support Bryan and silver will thank the common sense of the nation for saving them from the clutches of the silver conspirators.

DON'T FORGET THE BONDS.

Every man who casts a ballot next Tuesday is urged to remember the bond issue, and not forget that the school board wants the permission of the people to issue bonds in the amount of $18,000. The money is needed. The board would not ask it if they did not see in this method a saving for the taxpayers. They must pay to the banks not later than Jan. 1 of next year $15,000, and about $600 is needed to pay for the necessary improvements at the Grant street building. The majority of school buildings require painting in order that the wood and metal may be preserved, and fences are in two places required.
The plastering in Central building is defective, and some of the rooms are in a filthy condition owing to the imperfect working of the heating system last year.
Wall paper is sadly needed there, and additional rooms must be provided to accommodate the increased attendance in many grades. The income of the board only provides for current expenses, $2,000 for the redemption of bonds, and $4,700 for interest. The $15,000 due in January was used in completing Central building. If the bond issue is authorized, and there is no reason to believe that, in the face of the circumstances, it will be defeated, the board will save two to three per cent in interest, an item of im-

HARRISON TO CHICAGOANS

He Tells Them to Stamp Out the Issues Raised by Altgeld.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The following telegram was sent by ex-President Harrison to a big meeting of the Marquette club in this city:

"I am very sorry that I cannot speak in Chicago. It was in your city and by your governor that the issue was newly raised that the enforcement of the national laws by the president and the United States courts was an invasion of the rights of the states. You should kill this dangerous heresy in the place of its birth. Law abiding, peaceful communities, mutual good will, a full value dollar and home work for home folks will bring back the prosperity we have lost."

HARRISON MUST KEEP QUIET.

If He Does Not He Will Be Persecuted
Like Count Von Armin.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A special dispatch from Berlin says that it is understood there that the proposed prosecution of Prince Bismarck's organ, The Hamburger Nachrichten, for publishing state secrets, has been abandoned out of fear of the harm such a step might do to Germany's foreign policy.

Prince Bismarck, however, should kill this dangerous heresy in the place of its birth. Law abiding, peaceful communities, mutual good will, a full
value dollar and home work for home folks will bring back the prosperity we

London Cabmen to Strike.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Four thousand cabmen are going out on strike, another chapter in the long and wearisome dispute between the cabmen and railroad stations.

Fourteen Fishermen Drowned.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—A fishing boat has been lost near Setubal, 18 miles southeast of this city.

TONSILINE CURES SORE THROAT.

Read what a well-known Minister
writes us about Tonsiline:

East Palestine, O., April 8, 1895.

The Tonsiline Co.:
I take pleasure in saying that we have
used Tonsiline in the family for ulcerated sore throat, and it not only seemed to prevent the attack from being so severe as formerly, but cured the throat completely in a very few days. When any one of us has sore throat of any kind, the rush is for the Tonsiline bottle, and that is the last of it.
It is certainly a most excellent remedy.

Yours very truly,
D. F. DICKSON.

TONSILINE SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOME.

Sore Mouth, Croup and Quinsy are quickly cured by Tonsiline.

THE HUSBAND UNDER GUARD

Suspicious Circumstances About the Robbery and Murder Near Norristown

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 30.—Coroner Kurtz has visited the scene of the Kaiser tragedy, where Mr. and Mrs.
Charles O. Kaiser, Jr. were (according to the husband's story) held up by two highwaymen and Mrs. Kaiser murdered and her husband shot through the left arm.

The coroner found Mrs. Kaiser's gold watch hidden under a stone and the revolver alongside a nearby fence. Her purse containing $40, was found in the carriage in which the couple were riding when the alleged holdup occurred.
Kaiser is being guarded in his room by two detectives. There is an insurance policy for $5,000 upon Mrs. Kaiser's life. It is known that Mr. and Mrs.
Kaiser were jealous of each other, but on the husband's part, it is said, there was absolutely no cause.

Morgantown Students Bolt.

WHEELING, Oct. 30.—Three hundred students at the West Virginia State university arose in a body during chapel exercises and walked out to show their contempt for the athletic faculty for refusing to accept the resignation of Cutright, the manager of the football team.

Charges Against a Trust.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30.—Lewis C. Braunkamp has sued the Wire Nail Manufacturers' association for $300,000, saying they have kept an Anderson (Ind.) firm from selling him 40 machines. By an enormous advance in nails, he says, the association has made over $6,000,000 profit in a year.

Heard the Generals Talk.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 30.—Generals Howard, Alger and Corporal Tanner talked to between 7,000 and 8,000 Republicans last night.

MANY OHIO CALLERS.

McKinley Talked to People
From His Own State.

The Major Received Them In His Library—A Great Crowd of Railroaders Called From Charleston, W. Va.—Ladies Present From Warren, O.

CANTON, O., Oct. 30.—Residents of Columbus and of Vinton, Huron and Fairfield counties, coming on one large special train, constituted one of the audiences addressed by Major McKinley. Addresses were made by Judge Lorenzo D. Hagerty of Columbus, Dr.
C. B. Taylor of McArthur, T. S. Par-cell of Logan, George Mordoff of Wakeman and W. S. Winkoop.

A trainload of farmers, business men and old soldiers came from Ashland county with greetings and assurances of support for Major McKinley. They were received on the lawn and introduced by Thomas Carey of Perryville.
The lady employees of Whitman & Barnes, who came down from Warren, indulged in no formal speechmaking.
Each was presented to Major McKinley and later to his mother. They brought magnificent flowers for the wife and mother.

A special train of seven coaches arrived bringing the employees of the Kenawha and Michigan railroad from Charleston, W. Va. The visitors were escorted to the McKinley home and were there introduced by W. W. Brown, a conductor on the road.

A small party of business men and manufacturers of Pittsburgh called at the McKinley home. It was made up of
Colonel J. A. Schoonmaker, O. H.
Childs, W. S. Abbott, James Laughlin,
E. M. Ferguson, A. W. Wood, John R.
McGinley, H. C. Fowles, W. W. Wil-lock, W. W. Lawrence, W. A. Magee.
Mr. Schoonmaker was spokesman.
They were received in the library.

A special train of a dozen coaches
brought farmers, business men, workingmen and citizens in general from Hancock and Seneca counties, O. The delegation was headed by a band and made a very enthusiastic demonstration on the lawn when Major McKin-
T. H. McConica of Findlay and W. A.
Dickey of Tiffin.

The directors and officers of the German bank of Pittsburgh also called and were received in the library.

Major McKinley made five formal addresses, the last to seven carloads of people coming from Fulton and Williams counties, O., and DeKalb and other northeastern counties of Indiana.

The five audiences addressed were composed of 14 delegations, in which there were railroad men, business men and manufacturers and farmers, mechanics, miners, oil men, glassworkers, ironworkers, bankers, professional men, printers, men and women office employes, coming from four states, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio. Besides the five speeches Major McKinley received a large number of individual callers from all over the country.

Major McKinley arrived in Canton this morning from New York and spent a part of the day with Major Mc-Kinley. He is on his way to Cincinnati, where he will address a meeting this evening.

Among the callers were Congressman Craigo of Massachusetts and R. R.
Wright of Georgia, A. B. Fortune and Representative Harry Smith of Cleveland, the latter three being prominent African-American Republicans.

In the course of his speech to the Hancock and Seneca county (O.) delegations, Major McKinley said:

"What is all this contention about?
What does it mean that from one end of this country to the other, in every state and territory of the American Union there are assembled today millions of men discussing questions of great national import? What is the contention about, my fellow citizens? It is a question as to whether we are to continue doing business with good money, or commence doing it with poor money. This is the plain, simple question, touching the great problems of finance. We have today in this country as good money as can be found anywhere in the world. Every dollar of it is as good as gold and passes current everywhere. It is now proposed that we shall change this splendid financial system and enter upon a program of irrevocable paper dollars, or debased silver dollars. It seems to me that the naked statement of the proposition should bring its instant condemnation. If there is anything that the workingman wants, if there is anything that the merchant wants, or that the farmer wants that shall be stable, fixed and unvarying in value, it is the money he takes in exchange for his labor or products. As I said a moment ago, this is the sort of money we have now, and is the sort that next Tuesday we mean to decree shall be continued.

"What is the other question, my fellow citizens? The other question is one of taxation. It takes money to run the government, and our political opponents say they will not borrow any money to do it, and they do not tell us how they will run it. [A voice: "They don't know"] They will not discuss the tariff at all. [Voices:

"They're afraid of it."] They say it is not in the campaign. I can imagine nothing more important than a revenue system that will provide money enough to run the government. We have not had enough money to run this government for the past three years, under a false system of political economy. So the question is, how shall we raise that money; do you want to raise it by direct taxation by taxing the property and lands, or the incomes
and wages of the people. [Cries of "no, no."] Well, then, the other way to raise it is by taxing the products that come from Europe in competition with American products. This is the way, I believe, to raise it; it is the old fashioned American way of raising it; it is the way Washington pointed out as the way to raise the money to run this government. When we have agreed upon this tariff as the way to do it, then I would so adjust the tariff upon foreign products that compete with American products, the products of our factories and farms, so as to give full, round, adequate protection to every American producer. This is the other contention upon which we must speak next Tuesday.

Then, there is another contention. We propose to have no stain of repudiation cast upon the American name; and we propose to stand by law and order and by the constituted authorities of the state and nation. We propose, moreover, that we will have no other flag in the United States but the glorious old Stars and Stripes.

In talking to the West Virginia delegation at one point Major McKinley
said:

"There are some people who seem to believe that the way to get on best is to have one body of our citizens arrayed against another. I do not believe that. I believe we are all brothers, all equal under our constitution and flag, and that all of us have a right to aspire to the highest and best things in a free government like ours. [Cheers.] The most glorious thing our history has demonstrated is that the poorest and humblest boy, with the poorest surroundings but with clean hands and pure heart, may reach the highest place in the gift of the public. [Cries of
"good, good," and tremendous applause.]

"I spurn the attempt to array one body or class of my fellow citizens against another, and I resent, with indignation, the idea that workmen are not patriots. They have been patriots in every crisis of our country. They require no coercion to make them love their country, their homes, their mothers, their wives and their children. [Loud and continuous cheering.] I am glad to know that the railroad employes from one end of this country to the other are marching this year under the same flag, and that of national honor and public and private integrity. [Renewed cheers.]

"I am glad to know that the employes of railroad lines all over the United States, for they have visited me from nearly every state, are standing together as never before for the maintenance of sound currency and the perpetuity of our free institutions, that recognize neither class, creed
nor condition. [Applause.]

THE FLAG NOT INSULTED.

A. R. U. People Deny a Sensational Story
In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A sensational story was current on the streets to the effect that the American flag had been torn down, trampled on and otherwise mistreated at a meeting of the American Railway union directors. In view of the intense feeling over the political situation prevailing here, the report created considerable excitement. Inquiry at the
A. R. U. headquarters, however, failed to verify the report.

"The facts of the matter are," said Director R. M. Goodwin, "for the past two or three weeks campaign dodgers
of all kinds have been thrown in the office. They have usually lain where they were thrown, and this was the case when about 15 or 20 paper flags
with McKinley and Hobart pictures printed on them were thrown in the door. No attention was paid to them.
We had no intention of insulting the flag. Does that look as though we had torn it down?" and Mr. Goodwin pointed to a large American flag draped neatly across the windows, under which hung the picture of W. J. Bryan.

"The report that Mr. Debs or Mr.
Burns were present is sheer nonsense.
Neither gentleman was here; there was no meeting of directors, nor was the American flag insulted in any way." Mr. E. F. Williams, manager of the Temple Court building, in which is located the offices of the A. R. U., said that affair had been greatly exaggerated.
"There were some paper flags on the floor," said Mr. Williams, "and tenants of the building made complaint. At my request they were removed from the floor. It is a question whether they could be considered American flags under the circumstances. At any rate I cannot think that either Mr. Debs or
Mr. Burns would offer to insult the American flag."

STREET CAR TURNED OVER.

dent on the Wyoming Valley Traction line. The killed and injured are:

Bowley; both legs cut off; died while

vale; leg broken and internally injured.

arm broken and contusion on the head

TWISTERS OF DEATH.

Cyclones In Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi.

A Man and Wife Died Clasped In Each Other's Arms In Oklahoma—Two Politicians In Mississippi Blown Along With Horses and Buggy.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 30.—A cyclone has swept over a stretch of country about 20 miles of here, devastating a district several miles long and probably 100 yards wide. The farmhouse of William Toby was first in the path of the storm. The building was destroyed and Toby was probably fatally injured.
The other members of his family escaped. Half a mile further north the Mitchell postoffice and store was lifted bodily in the air, carried 100 yards and dashed to the earth.

The building was smashed into splinters and Postmaster M. T. Mullin and his wife, who lived in the building, were killed. They died clasped in each other's arms. Two sticks were driven through Mr. Mullin's skull, but there was not a scratch on the body of his wife. The Mullins came here from Rock Island, Ills. The farmhouse of Abner Jones was also wrecked and many smaller buildings were destroyed,
trees uprooted and crops ruined.

Rumors are current here that the same storm did frightful damage further northeast, in Payne county, and that several persons were killed there.

At Wewoka, I. T., the same cyclone destroyed Governor Brown's store, a new church and four other buildings.
Several persons were hurt, but none seriously.

At mine No. 12, near Krebs it is reported five people were killed.

In Lincoln county, Mr. and Mrs.
John McLaughlin have been found dead in the ruins of their home and Harrison

A TWISTER IN THE SOUTH.

Louisiana and Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—A cyclone or twister has struck this city on the river front just above Peniston street and swept over a distance of about a mile and a half, or 30 blocks from Peniston street to Robin street.

The track of the storm being about 1,500 feet wide from the river to Annunciation street. The first building damaged was the Independence oilmill, situated at the head of Denison street.
It was unroofed and building and contents damaged to the amount of $6,000.

The conveyers of the new elevator
of the Illinois Central railroad, were slightly damaged and John Whitmeyer and John J. Buck, employed at the elevator, were lifted from the ground dashed against the elevator and the latter was severely hurt. Hundreds of buildings in the track of the storm were damaged, many being partially unroofed and chimneys prostrated, trees uprooted and fences blown down.

The property loss is estimated at $100,- 000. Skyrot cotton sheds, situated on Robin street, near the river front, used by the Texas and Pacific railroad for cotton storage, were damaged to the extent of $10,000. Several people were injured.

OXFORD, Miss., Oct. 30.—A terrific cyclone has passed through the eastern part of Lafayette county, demolishing farmhouses and uprooting trees of all sizes. Hon. W. V. Sullivan, Democratic candidate for congress, and T. J.
Harkins were driving a double team buggy. The wind lifted the vehicle, horses and all and carried them 200 yards. The buggy was completely demolished by falling timber, but neither men nor horses were seriously hurt.
Harkins sustaining a slight injury by a flying fence rail.

The storm passed through the outskirts of the town of Delay and demolished several houses. The house of Milton Eskridge was blown away, but his wife and seven children who were in the house miraculously escaped with slight bruises.

NEWELLTON, La., Oct. 30.—Tensas parish has again been visited by a most destructive cyclone. The immense brick gin on the Mound plantation belonging to Mr. Joe Curry, was practically destroyed. The course of the storm was from southwest to northeast, striking Bruen lake at Locust land, tearing down and destroying the public bridge over Choctaw bayou. Twelve cabins on Locust land were completely demolished and one colored woman was instantly killed and several were blown into the lake.

Later reports show two deaths of colored men at Mr. Bland's plantation on Lake St. Joseph from lightning and two colored women and a baby from Locust land were drowned in Lake Bruen, where they were carried by the fury of the elements.

BRYAN MADE MANY SPEECHES.

Talked to Big Crowds In Chicago and Northern Illinois.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—After a hard day's campaigning William J. Bryan returned to Chicago last night, arriving at the Northwestern railroad station at 7:15
p. m. A crowd of several hundred people met him at the depot and cheered lustily as he left his car. Mr. Bryan had dined before reaching Chicago and
was met at the train by the reception committee which was to guide him about the city.

He entered a carriage at the station
and was driven directly to the hall at which he made his first address. The nominee made nine speeches on the North and Northwest sides. At each meeting he was enthusiastically greeted by large crowds.

Mr. Bryan made speeches to big crowds at Elgin, Belvidere, Freeport, Foreston, Folo, North Dixon, Dixon, Rockelle, De Kalb, Geneva, Wheaton, Maywood and other places. He then returned to the city.

The Clifton House, where William J. Bryan received the news of his nomination by the Chicago convention, was where Mrs. Bryan last night received the women of Chicago. Despite the rain and mud prevailing, for hours before hand the spacious corridors and rotunda of the hotel were filled with the fair sex long in advance of the hour
set for the reception, and the crowds stretched out into Monroe street and Wabash avenue before Mrs. Bryan arrived.

The reception was scheduled to begin at 7:30 and last till 9, but it was late when the Bryan train arrived from the day's trip through Northern Illinois, and it was necessary to prolong the reception beyond the appointed hour to give all an opportunity to shake the hand of the wife of the triple nominee.
Mrs. Bryan proved herself an adept at handshaking, passing the visitors along at an average of 30 to the minute. For each person she had a most winning smile as well as a friendly word or two and a warm, firm grasp of the hand.
When it was all over she showed much less evidence of fatigue than the friends who assisted her.

MONEY RATE VERY HIGH.

One Hundred Bid and 80 Asked on the New York Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The approach of the election was signaled in financial circles by a rapid and remarkable advance in the money market.

Soon after the opening of the exchange for business there was a great demand for call money, which opened at 10 per cent, 1 per cent higher than the average rate the day before, when it fluctuated between 7 and 12 per cent.
By leaps and bounds the rate advanced until at noon 50 per cent was demanded for cash loans.

The demands sent the rates up until 100 per cent was asked and 80 bid. This was the closing quotation.

The immediate cause of the stringency was the calling off loans by some of the banks that wished to prepare

FOR MCKINLEY.

THE NEWS REVIEW was the first paper
in the United States to place McKinley's name at the head of its columns, has kept
it there ever since, and will continue to do so until the Great Republican leader is elected President.

UNLESS all signs fall the elephant will
give the donkey's tail an unusually severe twist next Tuesday.

If the enthusiasm of the people means anything, Mr. Bryan will not carry Chicago and the state of Illinois.

MORE power to the men who place
partisanship behind patriotism, and vote
this year for good money and good times.

DON'T give up the battle with the
assurance that McKinley will be elected.
Do your best to make his majority a record breaker.

MR. HOKR will speak to the greatest crowd of the campaign at the rink to-
ing; his arguments carry conviction.

THE NEWS REVIEW will give all the
election news next Tuesday evening.
Don't miss the bulletins as they are displayed in the windows of the office on Washington street.

SOME day, and it seems that day is not
far distant, the people who support Bryan and silver will thank the common sense of the nation for saving them
from the clutches of the silver conspirators.

DON'T FORGET THE BONDS.

Every man who casts a ballot next Tuesday is urged to remember the bond issue, and not forget that the school board wants the permission of the people to issue bonds in the amount of $18,000. The money is needed. The board would not ask it if they did not
see in this method a saving for the tax-
later than Jan. 1 of next year $15,000,
and about $600 is needed to pay for the necessary improvements at the Grant
buildings require painting in order that
the wood and metal may be preserved,
and fences are in two places required.
The plastering in Central building is defective, and some of the rooms are in a
filthy condition owing to the imperfect
working of the heating system last year.
Wall paper is sadly needed there, and
in many grades. The income of the board only provides for current expenses, $2,000 for the redemption of bonds, and $4,700 for interest. The $15,000 due in January was used in completing Central
building. If the bond issue is authorized, and there is no reason to believe that, in the face of the circumstances, it will be defeated, the board will save two to three per cent in interest, an item of im-

He Tells Them to Stamp Out the Issues Raised by Albigel.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The following telegram was sent by ex-President Harrison to a big meeting of the Marquette club in this city:

"I am very sorry that I cannot speak in Chicago. It was in your city and by
your governor that the issue was newly
raised that the enforcement of the national laws by the president and the United States courts was an invasion of the rights of the states. You should kill this dangerous heresy in the place
citizens, mutual good will, a full value of law and home work for home folks will bring back the prosperity we

HARRISON MUST KEEP QUIET.

If He Does Not He Will Be Persecuted
Like Count Von Armin.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A special dispatch
from Berlin says that it is understood
there that the proposed prosecution of Prince Bismarck's organ, The Ham-
burger Nachrichten, for publishing state
of the harm such a step might do to Germany's foreign policy.

It is added that, however, should Prince Bismarck publish the circumstances under which he resigned office the government will be forced to act, and it is said, it would probably treat Prince Bismarck in the same manner that the latter treated Count Von Armin, persecuting him to death for a similar offense.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Four thousand
cabmen are going out on strike, another
chapter in the long and wearisome dis-
stations.

FOURTEEN FISHERMEN DROWNED.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—A fishing boat has been lost near Setubal, 18 miles south-

TONSILINE CURES

SORE THROAT.

Read what a well-known Minister

East Palestine, O., April 8, 1895.

The Tonsiline Co.:

I take pleasure in saying that we have
used Tonsiline in the family for ulcerated
sore throat, and it not only seemed to prevent the attack from being so severe as
formerly, but cured the throat completely in
sore throat of any kind, the rush is for the
It is certainly a most excellent remedy.

Yours very truly,

D. F. DICKSON.

Sore Mouth, Gout and Quinsy are quickly cured by Tonsiline.

MANY OHIO CALLERS.

From His Own State.

brary—A Great Crowd of Railroaders
Present From Warren, O.

CANTON, O., Oct. 30.—Residents of Columbus and of Vinton, Huron and
special train, constituted one of the
audiences addressed by Major McKinley. Addresses were made by Judge Lorenzo D. Hagerty of Columbus, Dr.
C. B. Taylor of McArthur, T. S. Purcell of Logan, George Mordoff of Wakeman and W. S. Winkop.

A trainload of farmers, business men
and old soldiers came from Ashland
county with greetings and assurances
of support for Major McKinley. They were received on the lawn and introduced by Thomas Carey of Perrysville.
The lady employees of Whittam & Barnes, who came down from Warren,
indulged in no formal speechmaking.
Each was presented to Major McKin-
brought magnificent flowers for the
wife and mother.

A special train of seven coaches arrived bringing the employees of the Kenawha and Michigan railroad from Charleston, W. Va. The visitors were escorted to the McKinley home and
were there introduced by W. W. Brown,
a conductor on the road.

A small party of business men and
manufacturers of Pittsburgh called at the
Colonel J. A. Schoonmaker, O. H.
Chadwick, W. S. Abbott, James Langhlin,
E. M. Ferguson, A. W. Wood, John R.
lock, W. W. Lawrence, W. A. Magee.
Mr. Schoonmaker was spokesman. They were received in the library.

brought farmers, business men, work-
Hancock and Seneca counties, O. The
delegation was headed by a band and
made a very enthusiastic demonstration on the lawn when Major McKin-
T. H. McConica of Findlay and W. A.
Dickey of Tiffin.

The directors and officers of the German bank of Pittsburgh also called and
were received in the library.

Major McKinley made five formal addresses, the last to seven carloads of people coming from Fulton and Williams counties, O., and Dekalb and other northeastern counties of Indiana. W. Wil-lock, W. W. Lawrence, W. A. Magee.

The five audiences addressed were composed of 14 delegations, in which
there were railroad men, business men
and manufacturers and farmers, mechanics, miners, oil men, glassworkers,
ironworkers, bankers, professional men,
printers, men and women office em-
Virginia, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio. Besides the five speeches, Major
country.

Dr. Chauncey Depew arrived in Canton this morning from New York and spent a part of the day with Major McKinley. He is on his way to Cincinnati, where he will address a meeting this evening.

Among the callers were Congressmen Craigo of Massachusetts and R. R.
Representative Harry Smith of Cleveland, the latter three being prominent Afro-American Republicans.

In the course of his speech to the Hancock and Seneca county (O.) delegations, Major McKinley said:

"What is all this contention about?
What does it mean that from one end of this country to the other, in every state
of all kinds have been thrown in the
they were thrown, and this was the
with McKinley and Hobart pictures
printed on them were thrown in the door. No attention was paid to them.
We had no intention of insulting the flag. Does that look as though we had torn it down?" and Mr. Goodwin
pointed to a large American flag draped neatly across the windows, over which hung the picture of W. J. Bryan.

"The report that Mr. Debs or Mr.
Burns were present is sheer nonsense.
Neither gentleman was here; there was no meeting of directors, nor was the

Mr. B. F. Williams, manager of the Temple Court building, in which is located the offices of the A. R. U., said
that affair had been greatly exaggerated and that there were some paper flags on the floor," said Mr. Williams, "and tenants of the building made complaint. At my request they were removed from the floor. It is a question whether they could be considered American flags
under the circumstances. At any rate
I cannot think that either Mr. Debs or
Mr. Burns would offer to insult the American flag."

STREET CAR TURNED OVER.

One Person Killed and Three Injured.
Near Wilkesbarre, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Oct. 30.—One person has been killed, two fatally injured and another seriously injured by an accident on the Wyoming Valley Traction
line. The killed and injured are:

Julia Walsh, aged 20 years, of Port Bowley; both legs cut off; died while being removed to the hospital.

John Hughes of Port Griffith; cut about head and injured internally.

Dennis Hogan, aged 17 years, of Midvale; leg broken and internally injured.

Julia Curley, aged 20 years; and a arm broken and confusion on the head and body, will recover.

"They're afraid of it." They say it is not in the campaign. I can imagine nothing more important than a revenue system that will provide money enough to
enough money to run this government for
the past three years, under a false system
of political economy. So the question is,
how shall we raise that money; do you want to raise it by direct taxation by taxing the property and lands, or the incomes
and wages of the people. [Cries of "no,
no."] Well, then, the other way to raise
it is by taxing the products that come from Europe in competition with American products. This is the way, I believe, to raise it; it is the old fashioned American way of raising it; it is the way Washington pointed out as the way to raise the money to run this government. When
we have agreed upon this tariff as the way
upon foreign products that compete with American products, the products of our
factories and farms, so as to give full, round, adequate protection to every American producer. This is the other contention upon which we must speak next Tuesday.

Then, there is another contention. We propose to have no stain of repudiation
propose to stand by law and order and by
the constituted authorities of the state
and nation. We propose, moreover, that we will have no other flag in the United
Stripes.

In talking to the West Virginia delegation at one point Major McKinley
said:

"There are some people who seem to believe that the way to get on best is to have one body of our citizens arranged against another. I do not believe that. I believe we are all brothers, all equal under
our constitution and flag, and that all of
and best things in a free government like ours. [Cheers.] The most glorious thing
our history has demonstrated is that the poorest and humblest boy, with the poorest surroundings but with clean hands and pure heart, may reach the highest
place in the gift of the public. [Cries of
"good, good," and tremendous applause.]

or class of my fellow citizens against another, and I resent, with indignation, the idea that workingmen are not patriots.
They have been patriots in every crisis of our country. They require no coercion to
homes, their mothers, their wives and
their children. [Loud and continuous cheering.] I am glad to know that the railroad employees from one end of this country to the other are marching this year under the same flag—the flag of national honor and public and private integrity. [Renewed cheers.]

I am glad to know that the employees of railroad lines all over the United States,
for they have visited me from nearly every state, are standing together as never before for the maintenance of sound currency and the perpetuity of our free institutions, that recognize neither class, creed
nor condition. [Applause.]

THE FLAG NOT INSULTED.

A. R. U. People Deny a Sensational Story
In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A sensational story
was current on the streets to the effect that the American flag had been torn down, trampled on and otherwise mis-
treated at a meeting of the American Railway union directors. In view of the intense feeling over the political situa-
considerable excitement. Inquiry at the
A. R. U. headquarters, however, failed
to verify the report.

"The facts of the matter are," said Director R. M. Goodwin, "for the past two or three weeks campaign dodgers
of all kinds have been thrown in the
they were thrown, and this was the

Cyclones In Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi.

A Man and Wife Died Clashed In Each Other's Arms In Oklahoma—Two Pol-
With Horses and Buggy.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 30.—A cyclone
has swept over a stretch of country
about 20 miles of here, devastating a district several miles long and probably 100 yards wide. The farmhouse of William Toby was first in the path of the storm. The building was destroyed and Toby was probably fatally injured.
The other members of his family escaped. Half a mile further north the Mitchell postoffice and store was lifted
bodily in the air, carried 100 yards and
dashed to the earth.

The building was smashed into splinters and Postmaster M. T. Mullin and
his wife, who lived in the building,
were killed. They died clasped in each other's arms. Two sticks were driven through Mr. Mullin's skull, but there was not a scratch on the body of his wife. The Mullins came here from Rock Island, Ill. The farmhouse of Abner Jones was also wrecked and
many smaller buildings were destroyed,
trees uprooted and crops ruined.

same storm did frightful damage further northeast, in Payne county, and
that several persons were killed there.

At Wewoka, I. T., the same cyclone destroyed Governor Brown's store, a new church and four other buildings.
Several persons were hurt, but none
seriously.

At mine No. 12, near Krebs it is reported five people were killed.

In Lincoln county, Mr. and Mrs.
John McLaughlin have been found dead
in the ruins of their home and Harrison

Louisiana and Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—A cyclone or
twister has struck this city on the river front just above Poniston street and swept over a distance of about a mile and a half, or 30 blocks, from Poniston street to Robin street.

The track of the storm being about 1,500 feet wide from the river to Annunciation street. The first building damaged was the Independence oilmill,
situated at the head of Denison street.
It was unroofed and building and contents damaged to the amount of $6,000.
The conveyers of the new elevator
of the Illinois Central railroad, were slightly damaged and John Whittever and John J. Buck, employed at the elevator, were lifted from the ground dashed against the elevator and the latter was severely hurt. Hundreds of
buildings in the track of the storm
were damaged, many being partially
unroofed and chimneys prostrated,
trees uprooted and fences blown down.

The property loss is estimated at $100,- 000. Skiyot cotton sheds, situated on Robin street, near the river front, used by the Texas and Pacific railroad for cotton storage, were damaged to the extent of $10,000. Several people were injured.

OXFORD, Miss., Oct. 30.—A terrific
cyclone has passed through the eastern part of Lafayette county, demolishing farmhouses and uprooting trees of all sizes. Hon. W. V. Sullivan, Democratic candidate for congress, and T. J.
Harkins were driving a double team
buggy. The wind lifted the vehicle, horses and all and carried them 200
yards. The buggy was completely demolished by falling timber, but neither
men nor horses were seriously hurt.
Harkins sustaining a slight injury by a flying fence rail.

The storm passed through the outskirts of the town of Delay and demolished several houses. The house of Milton Eskridge was blown away, but
his wife and seven children who were in the house miraculously escaped with slight bruises.

NEWELTON, La., Oct. 30.—Tensas
parish has again been visited by a most destructive cyclone. The immense
brick gin on the Mound plantation belonging to Mr. Joe Curry was practically destroyed. The course of the storm was from southwest to northeast,
striking Bruen lake at Locust land,
tearing down and destroying the public bridge over Choctaw bayou. Twelve cabins on Locust land were completely demolished and one colored woman was instantly killed and several were blown
into the lake.

Later reports show two deaths of colored men at Mr. Bland's plantation on Lake St. Joseph from lightning and two colored women and a baby from Locust land were drowned in Lake Bruen, where they were carried by the
fury of the elements.

BYRAN MADE MANY SPEECHES.

Northern Illinois.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—After a hard day's campaigning William J. Bryan returned to Chicago last night, arriving at the Northwestern railroad station at 7:15
p. m. A crowd of several hundred people met him at the depot and cheered
lustily as he left his car. Mr. Bryan had dined before reaching Chicago and
was met at the train by the reception committee which was to guide him
about the city.

He entered a carriage at the station
and was driven directly to the hall at which he made his first address. The nominee made nine speeches on the North and Northwest sides. At each meeting he was enthusiastically greeted by large crowds.

Mr. Bryan made speeches to big crowds at Elgin, Belvidere, Freeport, Foreston, Polo, North Dixon, Dixon, Rockford, De Kalb, Geneva, Wheaton, Maywood and other places. He then returned to the city.

The Clifton House, where William J. Bryan received the news of his nomination by the Chicago convention, was where Mrs. Bryan last night received
the women of Chicago. Despite the rain and mud prevailing, for hours before hand the spacious corridors and
rotunda of the hotel were filled with
the fair sex long in advance of the hour
set for the reception, and the crowds
stretched out into Monroe street and Wabash avenue before Mrs. Bryan arrived.

The reception was scheduled to begin at 7:30 and last till 9, but it was late
when the Bryan train arrived from the
day's trip through Northern Illinois,
and it was necessary to prolong the reception beyond the appointed hour to give all an opportunity to shake the
hand of the wife of the triple nominee.
Mrs. Bryan proved herself an adept at handshaking, passing the visitors along
at an average of 30 to the minute. For each person she had a most winning
smile as well as a friendly word or two
and a warm, firm grasp of the hand.
When it was all over she showed much evidence of fatigue than the friends who assisted her.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eyes with ease and comfort. Also will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading or writing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure index that glasses are needed. The lenses sold in the cheap drug store are of no

The affair is in charge of the members of the congregation.

A large speaking trumpet caused a great deal of amusement at Republican headquarters yesterday afternoon. The trumpet would cause a voice to be heard
for fully a block, and people passing on Fourth street, when called, would stop and look around in a surprised way, and then pass on, while the crowd at headquarters laughed until the next victim
came along.

Commencing a week from next Sunday evening protracted meetings, conducted by Reverend Salmon, will be held in the Second M. E. church. At the same time meetings will also be commenced at the Second U. P. church and continue one week. Reverend Roseberg, of Hookstown, and Reverend Littell, of Wellsville, will assist the

The New Era is the name of a recently organized social club, with headquarters on Market street.

Miss Dora Ferguson this evening will entertain a number of friends at her home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Some person threw a stone through the window of the shop of the East Market street Chinaman last evening.

A number of the potteries are laying in a large supply of fireworks to be used in celebrating the election of McKinley.

The judges of the election went to Lisbon this morning to procure the poll books and ballots to be used next Tuesday.

A new melting furnace has been built at the enamel works on Ravine street, in place of an old one recently torn down.

Owing to an accident on the Fort Wayne the limited express passed over the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks yesterday afternoon.

The Virginia is due from Cincinnati today, and the Bedford from Pittsburg this evening. Fred Wilson passed up day evening. Four aides were appointed and lanterns will be carried by every

A. S. Young presented the members of the fire department with a neat book and ornamental one, and is deeply appreciated by the boys.

A practical joker pinned a picture of Major McKinley to the coat of a leading silverite, and he wondered as he walked through the streets why the people all smiled and seemed so pleasant.

Thomas Mumford, an employee of the glass works, who has been ill for two months with lung trouble, has also become afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, and is suffering a great deal.

Trustee Albright this morning took a young man to his friends in Lisbon.
The man was unable to care for himself, and had he remained here would have been a burden on the city, to which the trustees objected.

A rousing Republican meeting was held in Wellsville last night. There was a long parade, and good addresses. A meeting was also held in Congo. It was attended by more people than could find room in the schoolhouse.

A man and woman who came out of a Second street saloon last evening about 11 o'clock disgusted residents of Washington street with their profanity and vulgarity. Complaint should be made against them and they should be arrested.

A prominent pottery of the city is having an 8 inch whistle made to blow in honor of McKinley's election, while the employees of another concern are making arrangements to celebrate the event with a dance next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Next Monday evening at the parsonage of the Second U. P. church a reception will be tendered to the parents of Reverend Green, who will return on that day from Grove City, Pa., where they have been visiting for five weeks.
The affair is in charge of the members of the congregation.

A large speaking trumpet caused a great deal of amusement at Republican headquarters yesterday afternoon. The trumpet would cause a voice to be heard
for fully a block, and people passing on Fourth street, when called, would stop
and look around in a surprised way, and
then pass on, while the crowd at headquarters laughed until the next victim
came along.

Commencing a week from next Sunday evening protracted meetings, conducted by Reverend Salmon, will be held in the Second M. E. church. At the same time meetings will also be commenced at the Second U. P. church and continue one week. Reverend Roseberg, of Hookstown, and Reverend Littell, of Wellsville, will assist the pastor, Reverend Green, during the week.

Yesterday afternoon while one of the cages was being lowered from the trolley near the Virginia pier the block and tackle slipped and the cage fell from where it was suspended, a distance of about 15 feet, into the boat below. The bottom of the craft was considerably damaged, and it was towed to the shore at once to prevent it from sinking.
Luckily the bridge employees, who were near, escaped injury.

BIG GRANDSTAND PLAY

But the People of Lisbon Knew Allen O'Myers.

HE ATTEMPTED A SENSATION

But It Failed to Work, as Did All Other Features of the Democratic Meeting at the County Seat—How the Republicans Ended the Day.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—[Special.]—The county seat is laughing heartily today because of the failure of a Democratic scheme to draw sympathy to the cause of Bryan and silver.

Yesterday afternoon was the time set for a great rally. Elaborate preparations had been made, and Allen O'Myers was to make the speech. He arrived in town at noon, and his woes at once began. The team that was to haul him to the Commercial Hotel ran away, but the occupants of the carriage were not injured. For reasons that will suggest themselves to those who know him best, Mr. O'Myers retired to his room immediately, and did not appear until later in the afternoon. Meantime the procession formed, and a wonderful procession it was. The Salineville band, 14 horsemen and a few small boys made up the parade. When it disbanded at the square a crowd gathered, and waited for the speaker. Fully two-thirds of the assembly were decked out in yellow ribbon; but they waited, and in an hour and a half Mr. O'Myers appeared in the band stand. He was not favorably impressed by the display of yellow ribbon, and said he had but one death to meet, and he would meet it as well then as at any other time. After talking 20 minutes he assumed a tragic attitude, and declared that he would not permit himself to be the victim of attempted intimidation. Then walking from the stand, he disappeared. This was apparently a part of a well laid plan, for at no time during his speech was there an attempt made to interrupt him. The local Bryanites at once set up the howl of intimidation, saying on every hand that free speech was being denied in Lisbon. The Republicans only laughed at the silly charges, and forming a long procession, paraded the streets to the number of 200. There was much enthusiasm and cheers for McKinley.

ALL RIGHT.

What the Poll Showed in Old Columbiana County.

The poll of Ohio is complete, and the figures are in the possession of Hon. J. P. Smith, who was at one time state librarian. He gave out the report for publication yesterday, and it will startle the most sanguine friends of Major McKinley. Mr. Smith explains that the maximum estimate for Bryan and the minimum for McKinley is given in every instance, and he has reason to believe that the major's plurality will be no less than 100,000. The figures show 86,800. Twenty-seven counties of the state are conceded Bryan, and the remaining 61 go to McKinley. Hamilton is claimed by 25,000 and Cuyahoga by 10,000. The biggest vote for Bryan comes from Butler, where he gets 2,300. The estimate for Columbiana is 3,000. If this is in line with the prediction for other counties there is additional reason for believing that Mr. Smith's poll gives McKinley a smaller vote than he will in reality get.

A RECEPTION.

The Akron Potters Honored President Garfield's Son.

An Akron paper of recent date has the following:

"Hon. James R. Garfield, son of the late President Garfield, who is stumping this section of the country for the success of the Republican party, was a guest at Hotel Buchtel last night, and was given a reception by a delegation of the employees of the Akron China company. They presented him with a beautifully decorated toilet set. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Joseph Barker, and Mr. Garfield thanked the men for their kindness and present. It was a very pleasant affair."

WHEN NO ONE WAS NEAR

Henry Schiffbauer Passed From This Earth.

Mrs. Schiffbauer, widow of Henry Schiffbauer, is in receipt of a letter from the authorities of the West Penn hospital which explains the circumstances surrounding her husband's death. He was very much worse the Saturday preceding his death, and that evening his condition was dangerous. On Sunday morning he was found dead in bed, having passed away without the knowledge of the nurse during the night.

She Fainted.

While talking to a male companion on Broadway last evening, an unknown woman fainted. She would have fallen had not the person at her side caught her in his arms. She was carried to a house near by, where restoratives were applied, and in a short time the woman recovered.

A Lamp Exploded.

A lamp exploded in the saloon of William Rau, of East End, and, setting fire to some clothing, would soon have communicated with the woodwork of the building had not the flames been discovered in time and extinguished. The blazing clothing was seen from the street by passing pedestrians, who at once gave the alarm. A few buckets of water sufficed to subdue the flames.

All For McKinley.

The good news which has been coming to the city from Iowa was re-enforced by a letter which came to T. O. Timmons today. The writer is John F. Lacy, a leading attorney of Oskaloosa, Iowa, who is in position to talk. He thinks Iowa will go for McKinley by no less than 60,000.

HE MADE A MISTAKE

And the Police Were Notified to Hold Him.

WOES OF A NEW CASTLE MAN

Samuel Valentine Came Here With Property Which Other People Say Was Not His Own—Mrs. Gray Got Drunk and Was Locked Up.

Mayor Gilbert had so much work today that he began to think of the days when business in his department was brisk enough to make a man feel rich.

Samuel Valentine, a young man who came here last Saturday from New Castle and had some difficulty with John Rinehart because of a horse and wagon he and two companions sold the liveryman, was locked up by Chief Johnson last night. The man is held on information from New Castle, the claim being made that the outfit had been replevined and he had no right to take it away. There is probably some mistake, as the young man declares he knew nothing of the matter. He will be held until the New Castle people arrive, and will likely be able to show them they are persecuting him.

Mrs. Walter Gray, who is known to many people by the name of Mattie Eoff, fell into the clutches of the law last night. She was so drunk at a house on Broadway that the police were called, and she was taken to city hall in the patrol. Mrs. Gray did not have a barrel of money when the mayor investigated her case today, and she will remain in jail until some kind friend secures her release.

A DIVORCE.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pollock are No Longer One.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—[Special.]—The court yesterday gave Mrs. Mary Pollock, of East Liverpool, a divorce from her husband, John Pollock. The petition was filed in September, but was not made public until today. Willful absence was the complaint.

Ed Croxall, who was convicted yesterday of robbery, has filed a motion for a new trial.

Charles Deville, the Dunganon man charged with breaking the liquor laws, plead guilty to four charges yesterday, and was fined $35 for each. He had no license, but sold whisky by the jug.

Jack Fastbinder was tried yesterday afternoon for shooting Cecil Frazier with intent to kill. The crime was committed three months ago when Frazier went to Fastbinder's house to get his mother. Fastbinder is the father of Grant Fastbinder, who was sent to the penitentiary from East Liverpool for cutting with intent to kill.

AT THE GRAND.

A Breezy Time Holds the Boards this Evening.

"A Breezy Time" is the attraction at the Grand tonight. The company is a good one, and the play so amusing that a large audience is assured.

A special reduced price ladies' ticket is being issued for Monday night at the opera house, where Elroy's stock company begin a week's engagement. The management offers the low rate to fill the house. The company will have a successful week because its plays are the best and its people far above the average.

NO MORE DIPHTHERIA.

The Disease Seems to Be Leaving the City.

There were no new cases of diphtheria reported to Doctor Ogden today, and the impression is gaining ground that the disease has run its course. This condition is found in other towns of the state where diphtheria was for a time epidemic. A prominent physician says the weather seems to bring out new cases, and a few wet days are invariably followed by an increase in the number of patients.

NO ROOM.

Hallam Cannot Be Sent to the Newburg Asylum.

Judge Young examined Arthur Hallam last night, and decided that he had lost his mind. Hallam will be taken to the infirmary tomorrow, and kept there until a place can be found for him in the Newburg asylum. He labors under the impression that the government owes him $10,000 and that he is inspired to do wonderful works. He is seldom violent.

ENTERTAINED HER CLASS.

Miss McCord Was Hostess at a Pleasant Reception.

Miss Edith McCord entertained the senior class of the high school in a delightful manner last evening at her home in Thompson place. The young ladies were dressed in the costumes of the olden time, and many historic garments were in the party. The evening was made a delightful one for the large number of young people present.

The Indignities to Which Secretary Carlisle was Subjected.

The despicable insult to Secretary Carlisle, unfortunately, can not be attributed to the accidental attack of a few fanatics. The rioters who assailed the distinguished citizen of Kentucky in the hall at Covington, and sought to strike him down when he emerged, were so numerous and their infamous assault so patently predetermined that the Popocratic faction of the town must accept the responsibility.

The plot appears to have been thoroughly premeditated and systematically carried out. There was not a trace of provocation. The instant the secretary arose to address his fellow-townpeople the volley of missiles and oaths was let loose, and did not cease while he occupied the platform. Further violence was intended, and the mob which waited for him on the outside when the meeting came to an end was prepared, evidently, to go to any extreme. Happily, this added outrage was frustrated by a police escort, which attended Carlisle to a place of safety.

It is difficult to estimate the effect on the people of Kentucky of this insult to the foremost citizen of the state. He had come back to the county in which he was born, to the community in which he is the foremost resident, in response to an invitation to deliver an address, and has been treated to unspeakable indignity. The decent people of other states have read the details with amazement and disgust. The shock to the traditional instincts of courtesy and loyalty among the decent people of Kentucky is immeasurably greater. No greater violence to the good name of the state could have been devised and perpetrated. No more heinous exhibition of reckless brutality could have been concocted to besmirch the reputation of the commonwealth. And what was the inspiration for the outrage? Why was the secretary of the treasury of the United States, who honors the name of Kentucky and whom Kentucky has oft delighted to honor, reviled by a mob of Popocrats in a public hall in his own city, and forced to accept police protection in order to escape greater violence on the streets? Because he advocates national and individual honesty; because he has taken sides with the patriots who will not see the United States ingulfed in the mire of repudiation; because he agrees with the great Republican party and the entire present Democratic administration and every other Democrat of note in the country and nearly every business man, irrespective of party and the vast majority of farmers and workmen, irrespective of party, that to force a 50-cent dollar as the standard of money in this country on the people would be to commit a national crime and to submerge the industries of the country beneath an overwhelming ocean of panic and disaster. These are a few of the reasons why a few hundred Popocrats in Covington, Ky., taking their cue from the Altgelds and the Bryans, have presumed to insult Mr. Carlisle.

We err greatly if that insult be not magnificently avenged. Kentuckians are not wont to brook meekly such an outrage. It will give birth to thousands of votes for honest money, which will be deposited in the ballot box in repudiation of this Covington infamy. It should result in burying out of sight the last remnant of hope Popocrats might have of carrying that state for Bryan and silver and tuggery.—Chicago Tribune.

WHAT KIND OF A BOOM?

It Would Be Even Worse Than a Boomerang With Debased Money.

Sound money men say free silver would make hard times. Cheap money men say free silver would make a "boom." Which is right? Prophecy does not count for much. We get hard fact out of hard experience. All history shows that poor money, cheap dollars, inflated currency, mean ruin in the long run.

Free silver means, first, general fright; that is, a panic. The fear of a silver basis caused the panic of 1893. That panic threw 93,000 railroad employees out of work. That panic threw in all over a quarter of a million workers out of work and took the bread out of a million of mouths. This is history. If fear of silver did this, free silver itself would do worse.

But after the first fright, silver men say, there would be a "boom." This means that prices would go up. But wages do not go up as fast as prices. After a time men may get more dollars for their week's work, but they can not buy so much with their money. This has always been the history of booms. A boom is always a boomerang. What goes up must come down. In California, in West Virginia, in many parts of the west and south, you can see boom towns. A big factory deserted. A big hotel empty. Houses, not homes. These are monuments of folly. The harm they have done is untold. The poor farmers who have sold their farms and bought "city lots," the poor wage-earners who have flocked to the boom factory for work, have been left stranded. This is the history always of a boom.

During the war things "boomed" in the north. They "boomed" also in the south. There was "plenty of money" (currency) in the north. There was even more paper currency in the Confederacy. The Confederacy became bankrupt and paid nothing on the dollar. The Union was saved, but it had to pay double price for the war because of the cheap money it paid with The "boom" of cheap money doubled the cost of the war.

The silver prophets are fake fortune tellers. The future can be foretold only from the past. All the facts of the past show that when cheap money brings flush times for one year it brings hard times for many years to come.—New York World.

SAME CAUSE.

THE CAUSE OF PROTECTION.

It is a Cause, the Success of Which at the Polls Next Tuesday Will Mean Greater Demand for Labor, Better Wages and Higher Prices for the Products of the American Farm—Major McKinley to the Farmers.

In an address to Ohio farmers last Saturday Major McKinley said:

My Fellow-Citizens—It was generous on your part to come to see me, inasmuch as I am not doing this year what I formerly did in going about to see you. I am very glad to meet my old friends of Auglaize, Allen and Henry counties, before whom I have stood so many times speaking for the cause, the same glorious cause for which our party stands this year. The difference between the contest now and former contests is that we can count on our side hundreds, thousands and even hundreds of thousands of good old-fashioned Democrats, who are with us in the fight to maintain public order and the financial integrity of the United States. (Applause.)

We are glad to have them in association with us. Patriotism is never partisan; it is above that plane. One thing has never been said and never will be said of the government of the United States, and that is that it is a government of repudiation. We

Have Always Paid Every Dollar of our public obligations whether contracted in peace or war, in the highest and best form of money known to the civilized world. We never stopped to inquire what the letter of the contract might be; we only knew that any agreement by the United States government meant that it must be paid in 100-cent dollars at the time it came due. We do not propose to commence now, after 120 years of glorious history, of glorious life and glorious achievements, to repudiate our obligations, public or private. (Cheers.)

We do not propose to attempt to ever do business with a dollar 1 cent short of 100 cents. We do not propose to accept our financial standard from either Mexico or China. We propose to run our finances exactly as we have always run them, with fairness and absolute integrity on the part of the government and people; and we propose another thing, and if the people are with us we shall realize it. We propose to Protect Ourselves against the products of the old world; to uphold our own factories rather than build up factories for any other nation on the face of the globe. The American workshop, the American farm, the American factory and the American people, of whatever occupation or calling, are our chief concern, and we must see to it that there is no idle man in America and that none of our work is done in Europe so long as there is a man in this country who wants to work.

It is a policy of honesty, of patriotism and intense Americanism that our grand old party steadfastly maintains. I am glad to meet you and to greet you; I am glad to know that this year, as in the past, the Republicans of your counties are enrolled in the ranks and that sound money Democrats from every walk and calling in life are with you.

We welcome them as valuable allies in this great contest for good money and the supremacy of law. I am pleased that you have made this call and bid you hearty welcome; but as another delegation is waiting to see me, I must bid you good afternoon. (Great applause.)

VOTED AGAINST SHERIDAN.

The Popocratic Nominee For Secretary of State Did This.

The absolute impossibility of the Democratic state ticket being elected has caused its make-up to drop out of sight. Even politicians have to stop and scratch their heads to remember the names of the four candidates on this fusion ticket. Most people have even forgotten that the head of the ticket is Clifton A. White of Manchester, who was declared the nominee of the Democratic state convention, at Columbus, for secretary of state after another man had been honestly nominated and was endorsed by the Populist state convention at Springfield. Judge White represented the Brown-Clermont district in congress during the war. His votes and speeches during that period represented anything but Ohio sentiment. One instance is here given. During the short session of the Thirty-third congress a resolution was offered in the house tendering the thanks of congress to General Phil Sheridan and his troops for the victories which he and they had won in the Shenandoah valley. The original resolution was amended and passed Jan. 25, 1865.

The vote was: Yeas, 134; nays, 2. The two negative votes were cast by Benjamin G. Harris of Maryland and Chilton A. White of Ohio. Mr. Harris subsequently was expelled from the house for treasonable utterances. Mr. White is running for secretary of state on the Democratic-Populist fusion ticket. Chilton A. White's vote against Phil Sheridan can be verified by reference to the Congressional Globe, part 1, second session, Thirty-eighth congress, 1864-65, page 416.

BIG GRANDSTAND PLAY

HE ATTEMPTED A SENSATION

But It Failed to Work, as Did All Other Features of the Democratic Meeting at the County Seat—How the Republicans Ended the Day.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—[Special.]—The county seat is laughing heartily today because of the failure of a Democratic scheme to draw sympathy to the cause of Bryan and silver.

Yesterday afternoon was the time set for a great rally. Elaborate preparations had been made, and Allen O'Myers was to make the speech. He arrived in town at noon, and his woes at once began. The team that was to haul him to the Commercial Hotel ran away, but the occupants of the carriage were not injured. For reasons that will suggest themselves to those who know him best, Mr. O'Myers retired to his room immediately, and did not appear until later in the afternoon. Meantime the procession formed, and a wonderful procession it was. The Salineville band, 14 horsemen and a few small boys made up the parade. When it disbanded at the square a crowd gathered, and waited for the speaker. Fully two-thirds of the assembly were decked out in yellow ribbon; but they waited, and in an hour and a half Mr. O'Myers appeared in the band stand. He was not favorably impressed by the display of yellow ribbon, and said he had but one death to meet, and he would meet it as well then as at any other time. After talking 20 minutes he assumed a tragic attitude, and declared that he would not permit himself to be the victim of attempted intimidation. Then walking from the stand, he disappeared. This was apparently a part of a well laid plan, for at no time during his speech was there an attempt made to interrupt him. The local Bryanites at once set up the howl of intimidation, saying on every hand that free speech was being denied in Lisbon. The Republicans only laughed at the silly charges, and forming a long procession, paraded the streets to the number of 300. There was much enthusiasm and cheers for McKinley.

ALL RIGHT.

What the Poll Showed in Old Columbiana County.

The poll of Ohio is complete, and the figures are in the possession of Hon. J. P. Smith, who was at one time state librarian. He gave out the report for publication yesterday, and it will startle the most sanguine friends of Major McKinley. Mr. Smith explains that the maximum estimate for Bryan and the minimum for McKinley is given in every instance, and he has reason to believe that the major's plurality will be no less than 100,000. The figures show 86,800. Twenty-seven counties of the state are conceded Bryan, and the remaining 61 go to McKinley. Hamilton is claimed by 25,000 and Cuyahoga by 10,000. The biggest vote for Bryan comes from Butler, where he gets 2,300. The estimate for Columbiana is 3,000. If this is in line with the prediction for other counties there is additional reason for believing that Mr. Smith's poll gives McKinley a smaller vote than he will in reality get.

A RECEPTION.

The Akron Potters Honored President Garfield's Son.

An Akron paper of recent date has the following: "Hon. James R. Garfield, son of the late President Garfield, who is stumping this section of the country for the success of the Republican party, was a guest at Hotel Buchtel last night, and was given a reception by a delegation of the employees of the Akron China company. They presented him with a beautifully decorated toilet set. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Joseph Barker, and Mr. Garfield thanked the men for their kindness and present. It was a very pleasant affair."

HE MADE A MISTAKE

And the Police Were Notified to Hold Him.

WOES OF A NEW CASTLE MAN

Samuel Valentine Came Here With Property Which Other People Say Was Not His Own—Mrs. Gray Got Drunk and Was Locked Up.

Mayor Gilbert had so much work today that he began to think of the days when business in his department was brisk enough to make a man feel rich.

Samuel Valentine, a young man who came here last Saturday from New Castle and had some difficulty with John Rinehart because of a horse and wagon he and two companions sold the liveryman, was locked up by Chief Johnson last night. The man is held on information from New Castle, the claim being made that the outfit had been replevined and he had no right to take it away. There is probably some mistake, as the young man declares he knew nothing of the matter. He will be held until the New Castle people arrive, and will likely be able to show them they are persecuting him.

Mrs. Walter Gray, who is known to many people by the name of Mattie Eoff, fell into the clutches of the law last night. She was so drunk at a house on Broadway that the police were called, and she was taken to city hall in the patrol. Mrs. Gray did not have a barrel of money when the mayor investigated her case today, and she will remain in jail until some kind friend secures her release.

A DIVORCE.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pollock are No Longer One.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—[Special.]—The court yesterday gave Mrs. Mary Pollock, of East Liverpool, a divorce from her husband, John Pollock. The petition was filed in September, but was not made public until today. Willful absence was the complaint.

Ed Croxall, who was convicted yesterday of robbery, has filed a motion for a new trial.

Charles Deville, the Dunganon man charged with breaking the liquor laws, pleaded guilty to four charges yesterday, and was fined $35 for each. He had no license, but sold whisky by the jug.

Jack Fastbinder was tried yesterday afternoon for shooting Cecil Frazier with intent to kill. The crime was committed three months ago when Frazier went to Fastbinder's house to get his mother. Fastbinder is the father of Grant Fastbinder, who was sent to the penitentiary from East Liverpool for cutting with intent to kill.

A special reduced price ladies' ticket is being issued for Monday night at the opera house, where Elroy's stock company begin a week's engagement. The management offers the low rate to fill the house. The company will have a successful week because its plays are the best and its people far above the average.

NO MORE DIPHTHERIA.

The Disease Seems to Be Leaving the City.

There were no new cases of diphtheria reported to Doctor Ogden today, and the impression is gaining ground that the disease has run its course. This condition is found in other towns of the state where diphtheria was for a time epidemic. A prominent physician says the weather seems to bring out new cases, and a few wet days are invariably followed by an increase in the number of patients.

NO ROOM.

Hallam Cannot Be Sent to the Newburg Asylum.

Judge Young examined Arthur Hallam last night, and decided that he had lost his mind. Hallam will be taken to the infirmary tomorrow, and kept there until a place can be found for him in the Newburg asylum. He labors under the impression that the government owes him $10,000, and that he is inspired to do wonderful works. He is seldom violent.

MOST SHAMEFUL

The Indignities to Which Secretary Carlisle was Subjected.

The despicable insult to Secretary Carlisle, unfortunately, can not be attributed to the accidental attack of a few fanatics. The rioters who assailed the distinguished citizen of Kentucky in the hall at Covington, and sought to strike him down when he emerged, were so numerous and their infamous assault so patently predetermined that the Popocratic faction of the town must accept the responsibility.

The plot appears to have been thoroughly premeditated and systematically carried out. There was not a trace of provocation. The instant the secretary arose to address his fellow-townpeople the volley of missiles and oaths was let loose, and did not cease while he occupied the platform. Further violence was intended, and the mob which waited for him on the outside when the meeting came to an end was prepared, evidently, to go to any extreme. Happily, this added outrage was frustrated by a police escort, which attended Carlisle to a place of safety.

It is difficult to estimate the effect on the people of Kentucky of this insult to the foremost citizen of the state. He had come back to the county in which he was born, to the community in which he is the foremost resident, in response to an invitation to deliver an address, and has been treated to unspeakable indignity. The decent people of other states have read the details with amazement and disgust. The shock to the traditional instincts of courtesy and loyalty among the decent people of Kentucky is immeasurably greater. No greater violence to the good name of the state could have been devised and perpetrated. No more heinous exhibition of reckless brutality could have been concocted to besmirch the reputation of the commonwealth. And what was the inspiration for the outrage? Why was the secretary of the treasury of the United States, who honors the name of Kentucky and whom Kentucky has oft delighted to honor, reviled by a mob of Popocrats in a public hall in his own city, and forced to accept police protection in order to escape greater violence on the streets? Because he advocates national and individual honesty; because he has taken sides with the patriots who will not see the United States ingulfed in the mire of repudiation; because he agrees with the great Republican party and the entire present Democratic administration and every other Democrat of note in the country and nearly every business man, irrespective of party and the vast majority of farmers and workmen, irrespective of party, that to force a 50-cent dollar as the standard of money in this country on the people would be to commit a national crime and to submerge the industries of the country beneath an overwhelming ocean of panic and disaster. These are a few of the reasons why a few hundred Popocrats in Covington, Ky., taking their cue from the Altgelds and the Bryans, have presumed to insult Mr. Carlisle.

We err greatly if that insult be not magnificently avenged. Kentuckians are not wont to brook meekly such an outrage. It will give birth to thousands of votes for honest money, which will be deposited in the ballot box in repudiation of this Covington infamy. It should result in burying out of sight the last remnant of hope Popocrats might have of carrying that state for Bryan and silver and thuggery.—Chicago Tribune.

WHAT KIND OF A BOOM?

It Would Be Even Worse Than a Boom—Sound Money Men Say Free Silver Would Make Hard Times.

Sound money men say free silver would make hard times. Cheap money men say free silver would make a "boom." Which is right? Prophecy does not count for much. We get hard fact out of hard experience. All history shows that poor money, cheap dollars, inflated currency, mean ruin in the long run.

Free silver means, first, general fright; that is, a panic. The fear of a silver basis caused the panic of 1893. That panic threw 93,000 railroad employees out of work. That panic threw in all over a quarter of a million workers out of work and took the bread out of a million of mouths. This is history. If fear of silver did this, free silver itself would do worse.

But after the first fright, silver men say, there would be a "boom." This means that prices would go up. But wages do not go up as fast as prices. After a time men may get more dollars for their week's work, but they can not buy so much with their money. This has always been the history of booms. A boom is always a boomerang. What goes up must come down. In California, in West Virginia, in many parts of the west and south, you can see boom towns. A big factory deserted. A big hotel empty. Houses, not homes. These are monuments of folly. The harm they have done is untold. The poor farmers who have sold their farms and bought "city lots," the poor wage-earners who have flocked to the boom factory for work, have been left stranded. This is the history always of a boom.

During the war things "boomed" in the north. They "boomed" also in the south. There was "plenty of money" (currency) in the north. There was even more paper currency in the Confederacy. The Confederacy became bankrupt and paid nothing on the dollar. The Union was saved, but it did to pay double price for the war because of the cheap money it paid with. The "boom" of cheap money doubled the cost of the war.

The silver prophets are fake fortune tellers. The future can be foretold only from the past. All the facts of the past show that when cheap money brings flush times for one year it brings hard times for many years to come.—New York World.

THE CAUSE OF PROTECTION.

It is a Cause, the Success of Which at the Polls Next Tuesday Will Mean Greater Demand for Labor, Better Wages and Higher Prices for the Products of the American Farm—Major McKinley to the Farmers.

In an address to Ohio farmers last Saturday Major McKinley said:

My Fellow-Citizens—It was generous on your part to come to see me, inasmuch as I am not doing this year what I formerly did in going about to see you. I am very glad to meet my old friends of Auglaize, Allen and Henry counties, before whom I have stood so many times speaking for the cause, the same glorious cause for which our party stands this year. The difference between the contest now and former contests is that we can count on our side hundreds, thousands and even hundreds of thousands of good old-fashioned Democrats, who are with us in the fight to maintain public order and the financial integrity of the United States. (Applause.)

We are glad to have them in association with us. Patriotism is never partisan; it is above that plane. One thing has never been said and never will be said of the government of the United States, and that is that it is a government of repudiation. We

of our public obligations whether contracted in peace or war, in the highest and best form of money known to the civilized world. We never stopped to inquire what the letter of the contract might be; we only knew that by our agreement by the United States government meant that it must be paid in 100-cent dollars at the time it came due. We do not propose to commence now, after 120 years of glorious history, of glorious life and glorious achievements, to repudiate our obligations, public or private. (Cheers.)

We do not propose to attempt to ever do business with a dollar 1 cent short of 100 cents. We do not propose to accept our financial standard from either Mexico or China. We propose to run our finances exactly as we have always run them, with fairness and absolute integrity on the part of the government and people; and we propose another thing, and if the people are with us we shall realize it. We propose to

against the products of the old world; to uphold our own factories rather than build up factories for any other nation on the face of the globe. The American workshop, the American farm, the American factory and the American people, of whatever occupation or calling, are our chief concern, and we must see to it that there is no idle man in America and that none of our work is done in Europe so long as there is a man in this country who wants to work.

It is a policy of honesty, of patriotism and intense Americanism that our grand old party steadfastly maintains. I am glad to meet you and to greet you; I am glad to know that this year, as in the past, the Republicans of your counties are enrolled in the ranks and that sound money Democrats from every walk and calling in life are with you.

We welcome them as valuable allies in this great contest for good money and the supremacy of law. I am pleased that you have made this call and bid you hearty welcome; but as another delegation is waiting to see me, I must bid you good afternoon. (Great applause.)

VOTED AGAINST SHERIDAN.

The Popocratic Nominee For Secretary of State Did Th.

The absolute impossibility of the Democratic state ticket being elected has caused its make-up to drop out of sight. Even politicians have to stop and scratch their heads to remember the names of the four candidates on this fusion ticket. Most people have even forgotten that the head of the ticket is Clifton A. White of Manchester, who was declared the nominee of the Democratic state convention, at Columbus, for secretary of state after another man had been honestly nominated and was endorsed by the Populist state convention at Springfield. Judge White represented the Brown-Clermont district in congress during the war. His votes and speeches during that period represented anything but Ohio sentiment. One instance is here given. During the short session of the Thirty-eighth congress a resolution was offered in the house tendering the thanks of congress to General Phil Sheridan and his troops for the victories which he and they had won in the Shenandoah valley. The original resolution was amended and passed Jan. 25, 1865.

The vote was: Yeas, 134; nays, 2. The two negative votes were cast by Benjamin G. Harris of Maryland and Clifton A. White of Ohio. Mr. Harris subsequently was expelled from the house for treasonable utterances. Mr. White is running for secretary of state on the Democratic-Populist fusion ticket. Clifton A. White's vote against Phil Sheridan can be verified by reference to the Congressional Globe, part 1, second session, Thirty-eighth congress, 1864-65, page 418.

BECAUSE IT IS RIGHT.
